See additional edits attached. Particularly, I added some references per Joel and Karrie-Jo. They had mentioned adding some supportive references during our internal call with them.

Good morning everyone,

Thanks very much to Shanna who really worked this document over following our call with TDEC yesterday. I have gone through it and made the appropriate redline/strikeout changes and am sending it out to you for a final review. Shanna has made some excellent comments that I think will help DOE understand our position and why – thanks Shanna.

What I request is that you review and get me your markup back by lunchtime today (please). I will then use your markup to make any final changes and email it out to everyone later today. Our deadline is today.

Thanks very much for all your work putting this together.

Gratefully,

Carl
